1 Samuel 17 (KJV)

The Philistine army stood on one hill, and the army of Israel on another. Every day a giant named Goliath came out and shouted, daring any Israelite to fight him. He stood about nine feet tall and wore heavy armour, and the soldiers of Israel were afraid.

But a young shepherd boy named David came to bring food to his brothers. When he heard Goliath, he said, 'Who is this Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?' David trusted in the Lord, who had helped him kill a lion and a bear when guarding his father's sheep.

David put off King Saul's heavy armour. Instead he chose five smooth stones from a brook and took his sling. He told Goliath, 'I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts.' Then David ran toward the giant, slung a stone, and it struck Goliath in the forehead. The giant fell, and Israel won the battle.

David's bravery did not come from his own strength but from his faith in God. The Lord uses people of every size and age to do great things.
