Mark 4:35–41 (KJV)

The same day, when the evening was come, Jesus said unto His disciples, 'Let us pass over unto the other side' of the Sea of Galilee. They sent away the multitude and took Him into the ship even as He was.

Jesus was tired and went to the back of the boat. He laid His head on a pillow and fell asleep.

Suddenly there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. The disciples were strong fishermen, but even they were frightened. The boat was sinking.

They came and awoke Jesus, saying, 'Master, carest thou not that we perish?' Jesus arose, rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, 'Peace, be still.' At once the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

Jesus said unto them, 'Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?' And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, 'What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'
