Genesis 6–9 (KJV)

Long ago, the people of the earth grew very wicked. But there was one man named Noah who walked with God. The Lord said to Noah, 'Make thee an ark of gopher wood,' because He was going to send a great flood to wash the earth clean.

Noah obeyed God. He built a huge boat, just as God told him. Then God sent the animals — two of every kind, male and female — into the ark. Noah, his wife, his three sons and their wives all went inside, and the Lord shut the door.

It rained forty days and forty nights. The water covered even the highest mountains. But everyone safe inside the ark was kept by God. At last the rain stopped, and the ark came to rest upon the mountains of Ararat.

Noah sent out a dove, and she came back with an olive leaf in her mouth — the earth was dry! When Noah and his family came out, they built an altar and thanked God. Then God set His rainbow in the clouds, a promise that He would never again destroy the earth with a flood.

Memory Verse
